McKinney Lions Ready For Highlander Game

Lineups Of Two Teams Made Known; Thanksgiving Day Game Will Be Played Thursday Afternoon In Dallas; Large Number Of Fans Will Accompany Team.

Sale of tickets to the Lions-Highlanders football game at Highland Park, Dallas Thanksgiving afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock, began Wednesday and Prof. A. A. Alexander, Business Manager of Athletics, reports tickets are going fast. He expects a large crowd of fans to accompany the team to Dallas. When bought here the tickets are 40 cents each, while at the game Thursday they will cost 55 cents, Prof. Alexander said.

This game had originally been scheduled for Friday, November 28, but was moved up to Thursday on the request of the McKinney High Lions. The weather man predicts "fair to partly cloudy" in the Dallas area for Thanksgiving, so nothing seems to stand in the way of a good gridiron battle. McKinney Opens Purse Strings In Annual Red Cross Campaign

City Already Has Passed $1,000 Mark, More Than Last Year's Total, Says Earl Walker City Chairman; W. S. Smith Reports County Making Successful Drive.

Drive for funds in the annual Red Cross Roll Call, which started Armistice Day has already resulted in raising more than $1,000.00 in McKinney more than was raised in the city during the entire campaign last year, according to Earl Walker, City Red Cross Roll Call Chairman.

McKinney's goal was 1,200 members and it is expected to reach that point by the end of this week, but the campaign is by no means over, Chairman Walker said. He called attention to the urgent need for more money this year, due chiefly to the relief work being done by the American Red Cross in war-torn Europe and also because of excess demands upon the organization in this country.

The drive is coming along satisfactorily throughout other sections of Collin County, announces Prof. W. S. Smith, County Roll Call Chairman, and also Chairman of the County Red Cross Chapter. Collin County's quota is 2,925 members and Chairman Smith is confident the goal will be reached soon, but he says that the campaign will not cease until Collin County "goes over the top," as it has done in past years.

TOTAL OF 39,416 BALES COTTON GINNED TO NOV. 14 THIS YEAR

As Compared With 64,879 Bales, Ginned To Same Date Last Year, Says Mrs. Annie Farley, Special Agent; Most Of Crop Is Already Gathered.

A total of 39,416 bales of cotton were ginned in Collin County prior to November 14 this year, says Mrs. Annie Farley, Special Agent. This is in comparison to 64,879 bales ginned to a corresponding date last year, or 25,463 bales less this year. Indications are that this year's crop will be one of the shortest in several years and forecasts have been made of a crop of not much more than 40,000 bales, judging by the latest ginning figures.

THE THANKSGIVING TURKEY

He feels fine
And perky,
This strutting
Young turkey,
Because he is
Given much food.
He's pampered
And petted;
Is not to be
Fretted
But kept in
The jolliest mood.
This overstuffed
Turkey,
Important and perky,
May soon find
Life's outlook
Quite dim.
We pity
The creature,
This Thanksgiving
Feature—
But the menu
Depends so on him!
—Violet Thomas Hartmann.

Rev. Klein Will Speak At Union Service Tonight At First Methodist Church

McKinney Business Houses Will Be Closed Thursday; McKinney High Lions Invade Highland Park Thursday Afternoon For Football Game; McKinney Public Schools Dismissed For Thanksgiving Holidays.

Starting with a great Union Thanksgiving service at the First Methodist Church Wednesday night, McKinney joins the rest of Texas in observing Thanksgiving this year with deeper feeling and reverence than probably ever before. At no time in history, since the Pilgrim Fathers first gave thanks to Almighty God on the bleak shores of New England, have the American people felt such thankfulness as they do today. The rest of the world is engulfed in wholesale slaughter as the wars rage in Russia, North Africa, China and Western Europe.

The United States remains the one large democracy that is not involved in conflict. This, above all else, is the reason for thanksgiving in this beloved land. There are, however, countless other blessings enjoyed by the American people that will give rise to a devout feeling of thankfulness.

Thanksgiving Program.

The program, which will be folowed at the Union Thanksgiving Service tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, follows:

Organ Prelude, Miss Mary Jo Hamilton.
Hymn, "Come Thou Almighty King."
Scripture Lesson.
Hymn, "O For A Thousand Tongues."
Congregational Prayer, Dr. Clifford S. Weaver, Pastor of the First Christian Church.
Offertory, Miss Mary Jo Hamilton.
Solo, Mrs. C. T. Conerly.
Sermon, Rev. Richard S. Klein, "Thanksgiving Is From The Heart."
Hymn, "O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand."
Prayer, Dr. R. L. Cowan, Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.
Doxology.
Benediction, Rev. Richard S. Klein.

Union Thanksgiving Church Service.

At the Union Church service Wednesday night Rev. Richard S. Klein, Pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, preached on the subject "Thanksgiving Is From The Heart" and a beautiful musical program in keeping with the spirit of the season was rendered by a combined choir of talented singers from all of the participating churches. Rev. Earl J. Patton, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, had charge of the service.

With the arrival of Thanksgiving, aside from the religious activities throughout Collin County, Texas and the Nation, two things stand out. One will be that old-fashioned family turkey dinner on Thanksgiving Day and the other is the close of the football season. Foremost of the gridiron battles scheduled for Thursday afternoon is the Texas University-A. & M. Game and it is expected a large number of local fans will journey to College Station to see that contest.

Many other football fans will accompany the McKinney Lions to Dallas when they play the Highland Park Highlanders Thursday afternoon.

Ward School Games.

In McKinney Wednesday afternoon, when the schools recessed for the Thanksgiving holidays, the four Ward Schools played two games at Newsome Stadium, starting at 3:45 o'clock, and Thursday afternoon there will be a game at the Stadium between the Doty Colored team and the eleven from Bonham Colored High.

At Melissa a Community Thanksgiving service was held at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night and similar religious gatherings were held in many other parts of Collin County Wednesday night and Thursday.

All places of business in McKinney, including the two banks, City Hall and Court House and all of the retail stores and wholesale houses and offices are closed all day Thursday with the exception of the Police and Fire Departments and the Sheriff's office. As the Post Office observed last Thursday as Thanksgiving, the Federal Building will be open all day.

All this week Collin County farmers have been bringing fat young turkeys to McKinney and the grocery and meat markets have done a good business. Turkey prices have proven satisfactory to the farmers and yet the retail prices have been kept within the range of most pocketbooks. Considering the price advance on other commodities, dealers say that turkeys are not too high this year and the gobbler and hen will reign supreme throughout this city and county Thursday.

Collin Farmers Plan To Attend State Meeting

Between seventy-five and a hundred farmers and business men from Collin County will attend the annual meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation at the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth December 2 and 3, in the opinion of J. Boyd Webb, President of the Collin County Farm Bureau.

Officers for 1942 will be elected at the Fort Worth convention and the various sessions will be addressed by Government officials and agricultural experts on the subjects of needed increased production of food for national defense and to help Great Britain, Russia and China in their fight against Axis aggression.

In a telegram from E. R. Alexander, Manager of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation at Waco, to County Agent Jack McCullough, Mr. Alexander says this will be one of the most important meetings ever held by the farmers of Texas and he urges a large attendance from Collin County.

The five Collin County men who will be the official delegates to the convention are: T. S. (Pat) Murphy, McKinney; John D. Wells, Plano; J. W. Neal, Princeton; M. L. Mallow, Frisco and Charles Akins, Princeton. The alternates are: George Jenkins, Celina; R. A. Blaine, Celina; W. W. Dugger, Princeton; Fred Agnew, Nevada and Wayne Sherley, Anna.

All of these and President J. Boyd Webb, County Agent Jack Cullough and many will attend.

R. L. Hight has sold the good four-room house of G. W. Eddlemon, corner Johnson and Cedar Streets, to Arch Ellis. The deal was a cash one.

Hugh V. Ramsey of Bonham was brought to the McKinney City Hospital shortly before 5 o'clock Friday afternoon suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock near Frisco. Three other men were in the car with Mr. Ramsey, but were not hurt. Mr. Ramsey is still in the hospital but his condition was not considered serious.

McKINNEY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, NOV. 27, 1941.

With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right.—Abraham Lincoln.

It is common to overlook what is near by keeping the eye fixed on something remote.—Samuel Johnson.

For truth and duty it is ever the fitting time; who waits until circumstances completely favor his undertaking, will never accomplish anything.—Luther.

Cheese production in the United States for the first week of October was up 26 percent over the corresponding period of 1940, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service of the USDA.

Industrial production of the nation is 45 per cent greater than at the peak of 1929, and 2,000,000 more workmen are employed now than in 1940, said John H. Martin, an official of the OPM. Current rates, he said, include 2,000 airplanes a month, 10 light tanks, and half that many medium tanks a day, and a ship-building pace that will produce a new vessel each day during the first 90 days of 1942.

Strikes are costly. During the first 15 months of the national defense program strikes in industry caused a loss of 24,284,981 man-days of labor and involved 1,960,331 workers, the Labor Department reports. The lost time, experts say, would have been enough to build 10,000 airplanes, with enough time left over to build two or three warships of good size.

A hint that the government soon will take over actual rationing of raw materials in which shortages may develop is soon in the order of the OPM for detailed 1943 production programs covering every industry in the country. The survey is expected to give a detailed picture of requirements in relation to available supplies so that defense industries can be assured adequate allocations for this work next year.

COLLIN'S COTTON CROP.

The Cotton ginning report, issued by Mrs. Annie Farley, Special Agent, showing ginnings in Collin County up to November 1 this year, indicates that Collin County's cotton crop will be a short one this year. The report showed only 37,596 bales ginned to that date this year, as compared with 62,605 bales ginned to the same date last year.

Many factors entered into the situation to produce the short yield, including the government acreage reduction, late season, which caused the staple to get off to a late start, and continued wet weather, which prevented many fields in the lowlands not to be planted.

But, at that, Collin is far ahead of other North Texas Counties in ginning figures made known to date. The county next to Collin in ginnings up to the first of this month is Hunt County, with 29,801 bales; Fannin, with 28,133, and Grayson, with 26,091 bales ginned.

At the same time last year, Collin also led other North Texas Counties in bales ginned. Collin's figures at that time totaled 62,695 bales. Hunt County was second with 57,912 bales; Fannin was third, with 54,364 bales, and Grayson was fourth, with 46,503 bales.

However, the one bright spot in the picture is the excellent price being received by farmers for their staple this year.

FARMERS PLAN EXTENSIVE TERRACING PROGRAM.

A terracing program of 25,518 miles of standard terraces is the goal of Texas farmers under the 1942 AAA farm program, according to Fred Rennels, Assistant Administrative Officer in charge of the Texas AAA.

The extensive terracing program will be made possible by the conservation services or purchase order plan of the AAA program, he explained. The cost of terracing, established at a basic fair price for farms in a county, may be deducted from future AAA payments.

In arriving at a basic fair price for each County, the AAA official said that written offers will be made to county AAA Committees by persons equipped to construct terraces. The farms used as a basic guide for establishing the fair price will be farms selected at random throughout the county and are not necessarily included in the 1942 terracing program.

Factors entering into fair and reasonable prices include the customary price normally paid in the county, the price at which farmers can obtain terracing service through other channels, and the value of terracing to farmers in conserving and improving soil fertility.

In determining fair and reasonable prices to persons constructing terraces, Mr. Rennels pointed out that consideration should be given to cost of constructing terraces, kinds of machinery and scope of area to be served, and a reasonable margin for construction work.

After establishing a basic fair price for a county, terracing will vary by farms, Mr. Rennels said in explaining that the cost could vary as much as 25 cents per 100 feet. Any increase over 25 cents per 100 feet would be sent to the state AAA committee for further consideration.

Collin Baptists Send Thanksgiving Car Buckner Home

The Thanksgiving car, sent to Buckner Orphans' Home each Thanksgiving by Collin County Baptists, left McKinney late Monday, stopping at Plano to complete loading of gifts donated by South Collin Churches of that denomination.

The gift is under the sponsorship of the Collin County Baptist Association, comprising the county's fifty-four Baptist Churches, with J. Ed Gibson of McKinney again appointed chairman in charge. He was assisted in loading by Leon Burton at Plano; Joe Smith, Brooks Morgan and J. W. Butler at McKinney, together with interurban employes.

"It was one of the best and largest cars ever sent to the Buckner Orphans Home from this county," Mr. Gibson told a representative of these papers Tuesday morning. Included in the carload were dry goods, clothing, quilts, groceries, home packed jars and canned goods in abundance, flour, sugar, potatoes, and several coops of fat hens, etc.

This Thanksgiving offering is made annually by the Collin County Baptist Association and supplements the regular cash offering by each Baptist Church in the county, usually made at Christmas time, Mr. Gibson said. It has been the custom of the Collin Churches comprising the Collin County Baptist Association to send a Thanksgiving car to the Buckner Orphans' Home collectively, before which time, gifts were sent by the Churches individually throughout the year.

The car, conveying the gifts to Dallas, was furnished free by the Texas Electric Railway, of which C. T. Reddell of McKinney is local agent.

ORGANIZATION OF 18 BOYS 4-H CLUBS IN COLLIN COUNTY IS COMPLETED SAYS AGENT

Organization of eighteen Boys 4-H Clubs in Collin County has been completed by V. C. Andrews, Assistant County Agricultural Agent, but officers of five of the clubs remain to be elected this month. The others have all chosen their officers and Mr. Andrews reports they are functioning splendidly. He is expecting much from these youthful farmers the coming year and in order to keep in touch with their progress he has arranged to meet once a month with each club at the school house in the community where they are located. Up to this time, he said, he has been meeting with two clubs a day until he makes the rounds.

The boys, he says, are being shown how to exert every possible care in increasing the production of milk, eggs and beef cattle. "We are not trying to induce the boys to buy more stock but to feed and tend their present stock properly so as to bring about an increase in production," explained Mr. Andrews. "This," he said, "is what the Government wants every farmer, young and old, to do the coming year, as a national defense measure and to help send foods to Britain and the other countries resisting aggression.

The five clubs, which will choose their officers during November are: Josephine, Princeton, Bloomdale, White Rock and Nevada.

U. S. To Extend Armed Protection To Dutch Guiana

Another move for national defense was taken Monday when the United States sent troops to Dutch Guiana, the South American possession of the Netherlands. This was done with the sanction of the exiled Dutch Government in London and the full approval of Brazil. The purpose of this move, it was said, was to guard the mines producing bauxite, the material needed in the manufacture of aluminum. Lend-lease aid was extended to the Free French, Washington announced Monday night.

The British continue their terrific drive against the German and Italian forces in Libya and London reported the African campaign was succeeding all along the line in the drive toward Tobruk. Hand-to-hand fighting with bayonets was reported from the desert struggle for supremacy and the RAF along the Dutch coast was using its super bombers in attacks against German shipping, London reported.

With the Russians still putting up stiff resistance, the German high command reported Monday night their forces had advanced to within thirty-one miles of Moscow.

The conference on United States-Japanese relations which has been under way in Washington for several days recessed Monday, after which Secretary of State Cirdell Hull met with envoys from Great Britain, Australia, China and the Netherlands. No statement was given out Monday night.

From Berlin comes the report of a conference to be held by high officials of the German and Italian Governments with representatives of the Axis-controlled countries with a view of establishing a new order in Europe. It was said that Hitler himself will attend the conference, which was regarded as the first step in a move for peace. The peace, of course, must be according to Axis terms.

FIGHT INFANTILE PARALYSIS CAMPAIGN PLANS ARE MADE

William L. Clayton, international cotton merchant of Houston has been reappointed Texas State Chairman for the 1942 "Fight Infantile Paralysis Campaign."

Announcement was made by Keith Morgan of New York, National Chairman of the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mr. Clayton served as State Chairman for the record-breaking 1941 campaign in Texas and he has long been an ardent campaigner against the crippling disease.

In making public Mr. Clayton's acceptance of the appointment, Mr. Morgan said:

"The Lone Star State has always been in the vanguard of the nation's battle against Infantile Paralysis. Under Mr. Clayton's able leadership we achieved a record-breaking success in 1941. Here at National Headquarters we are confident that Texans will participate wholeheartedly in the Diamond Jubilee Celebration of President Roosevelt's birthday.

"We are now facing a serious situation. The three worst years for Infantile Paralysis have been 1939, 1940 and 1941. Many states have had serious epidemics the past summer. Money is badly needed in order to carry this fight forward so that eventually this terrible disease will be stampedout.

Mr. Clayton has accepted the invitation of Mr. Morgan to attend the meeting of the State Chairmen of all states in Washington on December 2, 1941. On that day they will be received at the White House by President Roosevelt. Mr. Clayton will arrive in Washington on December 1st. He will take part in the round-table discussion of campaign plans and will be a guest at the dinner which will be held at the Carlton Hotel in the evening of December 2nd. Others who wil lattend from Texas are Mr. Arthur P. Dyer, representing Mr. George Waverley Briggs, vice State Chairman, and Mrs. George H. Pittman, Chairman of the Women's Committee.

Other chairmen from nearby States who will attend the conference in Washington are Governor Homer Arkins, Little Rock, Arkansas; Mayor Clyde Tingley, Albuquerque, New Hexico; Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma City, Okla; R. L. Jeter, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Collin County Making Plans.

Under the leadership of Tom W. Perkins, Jr., who has been named Collin County Chairman, President Roosevelt's birthday January 30 will be celebrated throughout this county with a drive for funds to combat infantile paralysis.

Half of the funds raised will be retained by the Collin County Chapter of the National Foundation for the relief of infantile paralysis cases that may develop in this county and the other half will be sent to the National Headquarters.

Collin County has always responded liberally to this great cause and Chairman Perkins feels confident this county will go "over the top" again this year.

Classes In Home Nursing Will Continue 5 Weeks

Classes in home nursing, which have been in progress each Monday at the Coliseum, sponsored by the Collin County Red Cross Chapter, will continue for four more weeks. Examinations will be held Monday, December 22. The 57 ladies who are taking the course will receive certificates from the Red Cross when they pass the examinations.

Mrs. Cecil Stevens is Chairman in charge of the course and Mrs. John Lewis White is Co-Chairman. The classes are held each Monday, one in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, with 19 ladies, principally housewives, in each class.

Mrs. Nettie Kirchhoff, Miss Mildred Aubrey and Miss Odessa Harris, all Registered Nurses employed by the City-County health Unit, are giving their services, and the Red Cross Chapter furnishes the materials used. The course includes studies in personal hygiene, sanitation in the home and community, control of communicable diseases, care of young mothers and babies and the aged. Free use of the Coliseum is given the Red Cross by the City Commission, composed of Mayor Tom W. Perkins and Commissioners Lyman D. Robinson and J. H. Snapp.

Most of the ladies taking the course are residents of McKinney, although there are a few from other parts of the county. When this course is completed, Mrs. Stevens announced that courses will be given in other sections of the county. Already plans are completed for two courses to be conducted at Frisco, one for school girls and the other for adults after the Christmas holidays. A request for a course has also been received from Westminster. Mrs. Kirchhoff will conduct the two classes at Frisco and Miss Aubrey will teach the ladies at Westminster, Mrs. Stevens said.

Ladies enrolling for the course are required to buy a text book, which costs only 75 cents. This is the only expense incurred. Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. White will gladly arrange for courses in any other part of Collin County if interested persons will communicate with them. Mrs. Stevens' phone number is 366 and Mrs. White's is 438.

"We feel that the course in McKinney has proven of great value to the ladies who are taking it," said Mrs. Stevens, "and we are very appreciative of the fine services given by Mrs. Kirchhoff, Miss Aubrey and Miss Harris."

T. E. Craig And Wife Are Home From Houston

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Craig returned Sunday from Houston, where they attended the Texas State Manufacturers Convention.

Mr. Craig appeared on the program in an address upon the subject of an endeavor to get concerted action between the different state agencies and the industrial interests of Texas on constructive legislation relating to the pollution of natural water courses by endustrial wastes.

Mr. Craig is an active member of the association's standing Committee along such endeavors. His belief is that the State and manufacturers should pool sufficient funds to conduct a worthwhile survey to determine the conditions to be met and then to jointly formulate a reasonable bill which would adequately protect the state's water supply and at the same time allow Texas to continue to expand as an industrial state.

Mrs. John A. Baker of Josephine was taken home Sunday after undergoing treatment at the McKinney City Hospital.

Mrs. W. L. McHone has been removed from the City Hospital to her home on Board Street, where she is getting along nicely. Her infant daughter, Margaret Ann, is remaining in the hospital a few days longer.

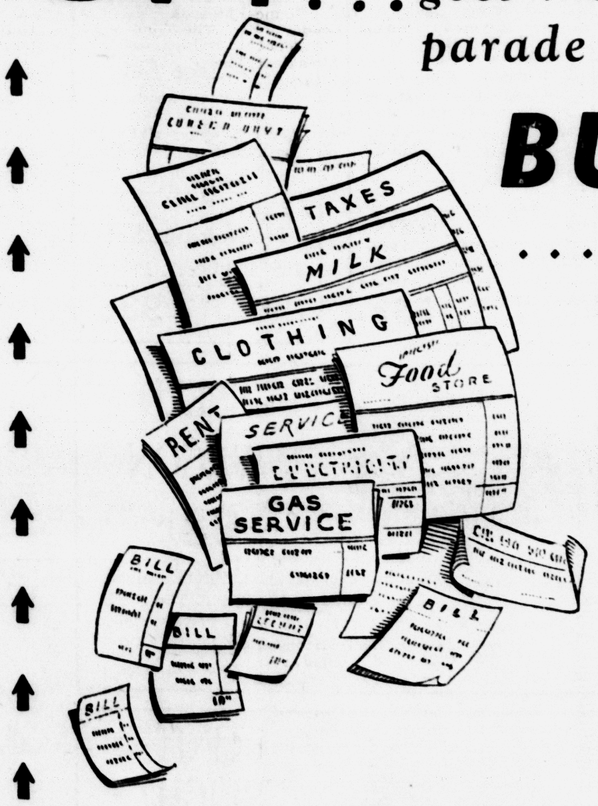
UP! . . . goes the cost of living in the parade of rising prices!
BUT! . . . natural GAS remains low in price as it has throughout the years!



Up..Up..Up.. go prices! Almost without exception food, clothing, shelter, necessities and luxuries of all kinds have zoomed to a new high One by one even the most ordinary commodities have joined the ever increasing parade of rising prices to slash deeper and deeper into the family budget. However, there is one outstanding exception because the price you pay for natural gas service is still the same low rate you have paid for many years!

In contrast to your low gas rate, the operating expenses for maintaining gas service continue to mount to an all-time high. For example, taxes alone for 1941 of Lone Star Gas System will require 21c out of every dollar of total revenue received from all sources; shorter working hours for employes, as required by the 40-hour week, have made additional employees necessary; because of the higher cost of living many wages and salaries have had to be increased; such supplies that are available are sharply increased in price.

While other business concerns have been passing similar increased costs of operation on to the consumer, your gas company has continued to absorb the constantly mounting expenses of serving its customers. By guarding against all lost motion, by keeping our wits sharp, by operating with all the efficiency of our trained, experienced organization, we are making every effort to meet the requirements of the present emergency.

Dependable Service for 13¢ A DAY
The annual cost of gas service for Lone Star Gas System residential customers averages only 13 cents a day for all purposes including cooking, water heating, house heating and refrigeration.

A NATION'S THANKSGIVING.

ONE OF THE FINEST Thanksgiving Day thoughts we have read is that by the Rev. Stephen Paulson, D. D. Writing in "Grit" under the subject, "A Nation's Thanksgiving," he says:

He hath not dealt so with any nation.—Psalm 147:20.

A Nation's Thanksgiving! What a beautiful thought that is—130 millions of people forsaking their secular pursuits and crowding their temples of worship and singing their praise and thanks to a bountiful God. It is an ideal which we hope is not as empty as many of the temples will be Thanksgiving Day. Perhaps God will forgive us.

WHAT THE DAY REMINDS US

THANKSGIVING DAY IS AN American festival, and it brings to every citizen a yearly reminder of the spirit of freedom and the principles of justice upon which this nation has built its greatness. For the founders of this day were thanking their God, not only for the material blessings which they enjoyed, but more especially for the land to which divine Providence had led them, for deliverance from Old World tyranny, for freedom of speech and worship, and for freedom to govern their own lives through their own chosen leaders. They thanked God for America. And surely today, in a world so filled with tyranny, cruelty, and wanton bloodshed, there is no citizen with a soul so dead or a mind so twisted that he does not lift his face to the sky and say, "Thank God for my homeland, my America!"

I love Thanksgiving because of its happy associations, because it recalls many bright scenes of other days. It transports us to our childhood home. It sets us into the presence of father and mother who departed in peace many years ago. It recalls their care and love for us, and the peace and contentment of a Christian home. It is the festival of the garden, where God placed man to till and to dress it. It is the festival of the home, where peace and love and the bounty of God are found. It is the festival of the humble, rather than of the wealthy.

But chiefly this is a national day, not belonging to any party, sect, or denomination, but a day when all differences of faith and practise and politics are forgotten in the song of praise to the Father of all. In a truly devout spirit did our forefathers assemble on the first Thanksgiving Day to praise God for His protection and care of the little colony in the New World. In a truly devout spirit did our first president, George Washington, issue the first formal Thanksgiving proclamation, and therein urge this nation to beseech God "to imprint on our hearts a deep and solemn sense of our obligation to Him; to teach us rightly to estimate the immense value of our blessings, to preserve us from the arrogance of prosperity; to extend among us true and useful knowledge; to diffuse and establish habits of sobriety, order, morality, and piety; and to impart all the blessings we possess or ask for ourselves to the family of all mankind."

OUR MANY BLESSINGS.

THIS IS A PRAYER INDEED worthy of the great man who wrote it, and while he rejoiced in the prosperity of the people, he did not forget that spiritual values are the greatest, that righteousness is the strength of a nation.

The people who instituted the festival of Thanksgiving were of simple tastes and they lived the simple life. We have many luxuries to which they were strangers, but they probably had more thankfulness and more contentment. We have harped on the American standard of living as the highest, the most luxurious the easiest and most comfortable in all the world. Perhaps that is true, but it has not bred true contentment. Rather has it brought discontentment among many who have not been able to keep up with that standard of living, and envy from some nations of the Old World. A European dictator announced that his great objective was to take away from the nations that have (with special reference to the United States) for the benefit of nations that have not.

Yet our nation has been and is the most generous nation on earth. News of flood or famine or any great disaster in any part of the world hardly reaches our ears before our ships are on their way carrying food and clothing, doctors and nurses, and medical supplies to relieve distress. Now, however, the dictators of Europe make it impossible for us to reach the helpless little nations which have been robbed of most of their sustenance and which face a winter of hardship and hunger.

Bow thy head and pray
That while thy brother starves today
Thou mayest not eat thy bread at ease;
Pray that no wealth, nor health, nor peace,
May lull thy soul while the world dies
Suffering, and claims thy sacrifice.
Let this day above all be one of personal thanksgiving to your gracious Father in heaven. Your means may be abundant, or they may be scanty, but thank God that He has given you honest work to do, and power to do it. Thank Him for home and family, for a good wife and healthy children. Thank Him for all the homely blessings which make life peaceful, and pleasant, and pure.

Let this Thanksgiving Day be a day of happiness, not of gloom and foreboding. Let us thank God for the privilege of living in America, for surely "He hath not dealt so with any nation." And let us renew our faith and trust in a good and gracious Father.

Barbecue Given At Rhea's Mill Wednesday Noon

Several hundred persons gathered at Rhea's Mill Wednesday noon to enjoy a Thanksgiving barbecue, served by Hundley & Hundley, who operate a corn sheller, one block East of the Rhea's Mill Store and Cotton Gin. This firm is composed of father and son, O. H. Hundley and Wilbur Hundley. They have operated the corn sheller the past five years, and this year they are so well pleased with their patronage by the farmers in that section, that they could not resist the tug at their heart to show their appreciation in a highly pleasing way, that of giving a big barbecue.

They had expert men to gather several corn fed turkeys, several fine veals and some young fat goats, and served this sumptious well cooked food to a large crowd of friends, men, women and children. All gathered around the long table out in the pasture of Avery Dowell of McKinney, near his large surface water tank in the tall grass region, and partook of this splendid feast.

Dock Hundley, as they all call the Senior member of the firm, called his Thanksgiving Day, midway between the other two Thanksgiving days.

The crowd was variously estimated from 300 to 400. The farm women of the community brought in pies and cakes, as their contribution for the occasion. Drinks of all kinds were in abundance, everyone showed a spirit of joy. Many attended from Celina and Prosper. Dock was so full of joy and mirth, that he showed all the good points of a man who wanted to not only have friends and their good will, but that he was a friend of all and glad to show it in a substantial way.

The Rhea's Mill school turned out and came marching in carrying the Star Spangled Banner at the head of their line of marching pupils and teachers. They sang a patriotic song, led by Mr. Rickerson, their teacher, who, by the way, made a hit with the crowd, as a teacher who really loves to teach children, and be with them. The pupils all seemed to be in love with him.

"So, Dock and Wilbur, we want to say this to you: You made a hit with every one there and all will carry home many endearing thoughts of you both. Good luck to you," said one of the attendants at the event.

A short speech was made by Geo. Jenkins, Celina. Mr. Jenkins called the Hundleys community builders, appreciative business men, the farmer's friends and the kind of men that make life worthwhile, men who not only want to make money, but want to help others to do likewise. They believe in the "Live and let live policy," he said.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

McKinney High Lionesses Win Over Anna Hi

In a hard-fought game Tuesday night at the Gibson Caldwell Gymnasium of the McKinney High School, the first team of the Lionesses' Basketball squad defeated the Anna High School girls 19-to-17. Anna's second team defeated the McKinney second stringers by a score of 12-to-5.

Margie Hoskins of the Lionesses played a superb game, making the highest individual score of the evening, 17 points, according to Coach Roy James. On the defense, Guards Edith Mills, Ruth Spurgin and Louise Mann did some fine work. Miss Estep, with a score of 9 points, led the Anna squad.

Another practice game will be played by the Lionesses tonight (Wednesday) at Blue Ridge with the Silver Streaks. The second teams will play first, as is the custom, starting at 7:15 o'clock and the First teams will play the nightcap.

Coach James Wednesday talked to Prof. Paul Henderson, Superintendent of the Allen School, who has charge of Girls' Basketball of the County Interscholastic League, and was informed that a meeting will be held shortly after December 1 to arrange the regular season's schedule between the girls' basketball teams of the county. The games thus far played have been practice contests and the scores do not count, explained Coach James. He said the regular League games will begin shortly after January 1 and will continue through the first two months of 1942.

Miss Johnnie Brignon Bride Of J. R. Stewart, Jr.

In a beautiful home wedding at the residence of Rev. L. C. Greer, Pastor of the First Baptist Church at Sanger, Texas, Friday night, J. R. Stewart, Jr., of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stewart, Sr., of 412 West Louisiana Street, McKinney, was untited in marriage to Miss Johnnie Brignon, formerly of Ferris, Texas, but who has been living in Dallas.

Miss Alice Reyther and Miss Norine Wester, both of Dallas and former roommates of the bride, were the bride's maids. The living room in which the ceremony took place was elaborately decorated with autumn flowers and a reception followed the wedding during which Mrs. Greer served refreshments.

The happy young couple left for Houston and Galveston for a brief honeymoon and upon their return they will be at home at 2509 Reagan Street, Dallas.

Mr. Stewart was born and reared in Collin County and is a graduate of the McKinney High School. He was formerly employed at the Style Shop, but a few months ago moved to Dallas, where he now holds a responsible position with a canteen service company. The bride had been employed in the office of the Railway Express Company in Dallas.

Among those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stewart, Sr., parents of the groom, and their son, Edwin of McKinney; Mr. and Mrs. Rex B. Stewart and daughter, Barbara June, of Dallas; Mrs. Tommy Butler of Dallas, sister of the groom; Tom Brignon of Dallas, brother of the bride and his wife; Bob Brignon, another brother, and his wife, of Dallas; and a brother, Gail Brignon, of Ferris, Texas.

The occasion was made even more enjoyable for the reason that Rev. Greer and his wife have been lifelong friends of the Stewart family, all of them living at Murphy for many years. Mrs. Greer was born and reared in McKinney, being formerly Miss Beatrice Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson. J. R. Stewart, Sr., and Rev. Greer have been the colsest of friends ever since boyhood

Princeton Cage Sextets Defeat McKinney Teams

Both basketball teams of the McKinney High School Lionesses went down in defeat before the onslaught of the Princeton Pantherettes Tuesday night in two spirited games at the Princeton School Gymnasium. The first team defeated McKinney's first team by a score of 16-to-11, and the second Princeton team won, in the opening game, from the Lionesses of McKinney, 16-to-8.

Roy James, Coach of the McKinney squad, said the girls played a good game, and although they lost he was proud of their performance. He explained that these are practice games and the players are constantly shuffled around until they can find the best combinations. The games at Princeton were the return match between the two schools which played in McKinney last week.

Collin Turkeys In Demand For Yule Holidays

Although pickers were scarce and thousands of turkeys had to be sent to Fort Worth to be prepared for shipping, a large volume of this choice food was shipped from McKinney in refrigerator cars to Northern and Eastern markets, according to local produce men. Prices received by the farmers were satisfactory, produce men say, and the quality of the turkeys this year was above the average.

Fine, tempting turkeys are now available for Thanksgiving tables in McKnney and while the retail prices are a little higher they are still within the budget of most families, dealers report. The wholesale prices this week ranged from 15 to 17 cents a pound, which produce men say, is satisfactory to the farmers.

Beginning about December 1 turkeys will again begin to come into McKinney for shipment to the Christmas trade in the North and East, and produce dealers expect to be able to find a sufficient number of pickers.

Between December 1 and December 10 they expect to kill, pick and ship from McKinney between 250,000 and 300,000 pounds. Farmers are still fattening up their birds and buyers, who have been keeping a close watch on conditions, report that the Christmas turkeys will be fully as high in quality as those brought in for Thanksgiving, if not even better.

Turkeys constitute one of Collin County's foremost money crops, bringing many thousands of dollars into the pockets of local farmers every year and this year is no exception. In fact, produce dealers say that the high quality of the birds this year, coupled with the increased demand resulting from heavy purchases for the domestic trade and supplying the various military camps with turkey for Christmas dinners, will cause the turkey market to maintain a very satisfactory level and will bring returns to farmers even greater than in former years. The general advancing trend of other commodity prices also, it was said, will have its effect on the turkey market.
